Letter from Thailand Enduro Series

Hello racers,

Thank you all and a warm welcome back to the first round of the Thailand Enduro Series 2016. It has been two years since we have left it off in 2014. It is our privilege to have you back in the series.

This year we are bringing you a full running series, which is the first time in Thailand. You will be collecting points that accumulate at each rounds, at the end of the series we will find out who are the top Thailand Enduro Series racers!

This race is set up exclusively to small number of racers so we could provide you with the best experience. I hope you will enjoy it.

Khao Eto was selected as the first venue because it is a great place to start a new season. New comers could start learning the Enduro format while the seasoned racers could sharpening their skills, endurance and strategy. Future rounds will be more challenging require more skills and endurance to complete the rounds.

It is highly recommended that you start here at Eto and progress with the series because it will be a natural progression in terms of skills, endurance and strategy for anyone who joined.

See you soon!

Nawaphansa Yugala
Race Director
